

DOCUMENTS AND WEGNER PHOTOGRAPHS REPORTING ON THE ARMENIAN GENOCIDE¹

Letter from Leslie A. Davis, American Consul at Harput² in Eastern Turkey³, to the US Ambassador to Turkey

"30 June. Sir: I have the honor to report to the Embassy about one of the severest measures ever taken by any government and one of the greatest tragedies in all history. . . . Practically every male Armenian of any consequence at all here has been arrested and put in prison. A great many of them were subjected to the most cruel tortures under which some of them died.... Another method was found, however, to destroy the Armenian race. This is no less than the deportation of the entire Armenian population, not only from this province, but, I understand, from all six provinces comprising Armenia.... For people travelling as these Armenians who are going into exile will be obliged to travel it is certain death for by far the greater part of them.... During the last three days crowds of people have visited the Consulate and the American Mission for help of some kind.... All feel they are going to certain death...."

1915, Armenian deportees-women, children and elderly men. Woman in foreground is carrying a child in her arms, shielding it from the sun with a shawl; man on left is carrying bedding; no other belongings or food noticeable among effects being carried. All are walking in the sun on an unpaved road with no means of shelter from the elements. Location: Ottoman empire, region Syria.
